

Fern Stitch

Start with three straight stitches that meet at a central point, as in the picture, above

Create a single straight stitch from the central point of your previous stitch.

Then continue in the vein of the first stitch – creating two diagonal stitches from the central point as in the pictures below.

Continue in this vein for as long as you need to.

